Daily Devotional

Proverbs 6: 20-22

My son, keep your father's command and do not forsake your mother's teaching. Bind them upon your heart forever; fasten them around your neck. When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you; when you awake, they will speak to you. NIV

God speaks to us as children. He tells us that his sayings and teachings are something that is alive! Not just words or abstract ideas and concepts, but a companion that will keep us if we cling to them, if we absorb them.

DK Devotional

You will find it so true, when you go about your day and the Holy Spirit quickens you to a Scripture passages which gives you resolve. Thereafter, every spare moment of the day, you desire to be alone to search the scriptures and the sacredness of his presence. Because of your attitude towards God's Word. His Holiness beckons you not just to love but slowly moves you in increments till it is climaxed in worship. Therein, is when you decide, that it is true: When I walked, it guided me. When I slept, it watched over me. And when I awoke, it was there to speak with me.
